

YEAR 10 TRADE TASTER PROGRAM 2018

Carpentry Locations: Acacia Ridge, Alexandra Hills, Bracken Ridge	With a mix of practical and theory work, students will learn more about construction tools and equipment and how to use them correctly.
Electrical Locations: Acacia Ridge, Alexandra Hills, Bracken Ridge	With a mix of practical and theory work, students will learn more about various electrical components and their functions.
Engineering Locations: Acacia Ridge, Alexandra Hills, Bracken Ridge	With a mix of practical and theory works students will learn various aspects of the engineering industry which may include welding or the use of engineering tools and equipment.
Flooring Technology Locations: Acacia Ridge , Bracken Ridge	With a mix of practical and theory work students will undertake a decorative flooring project, with speciality materials.
Furnishing Locations: Acacia Ridge , Bracken Ridge	With a mix of practical and theory work, students will use Furnishing tools and equipment to join together furnishing materials.
Heavy Automotive Location: Acacia Ridge	With a mix of practical and theory work with heavy vehicle components, students will learn more about the Heavy Vehicle industry and what it's like to work on buses, trucks and mobile plant equipment.
Light Automotive Locations: Acacia Ridge , Alexandra Hills, Bracken Ridge	With a mix of practical and theory work with light vehicle components, students will learn more about the Light Vehicle industry and what it's like to work on cars.
Motorcycle Mechanics Location: Bracken Ridge	With a mix of practical and theory work with motorcycle components, students will learn more about the Motorcycle Mechanic industry and what it's like to work on motorcycles.
Occupational Health and Safety - Compulsory Location: Alexandra Hills	These studies in Occupational Health and Safety will prepare you for safe work in all trade areas. This is a compulsory unit for students enrolled in the Alexandra Hills program only and students must attend both days to be able to participate in the remainder of the Trade Taster program.
Plumbing Locations: Acacia Ridge, Alexandra Hills, Bracken Ridge	With a mix of practical and theory work, students will learn how to use Plumbing sector tools and equipment to cut and join sheet metal.
Rail Location: Acacia Ridge	With a mix of practical and theory work, students will learn how to use hand tools and railway equipment and how to work safely in a rail environment.
White Card - Compulsory Locations: Acacia Ridge, Alexandra Hills, Bracken Ridge	A General Safety Induction (White Card) is delivered in this course. This is an industry requirement that allows you to work on any Queensland construction site and is necessary if you want to do Work Experience in any of the construction industries. This is a nationally recognised Safety Card. If students already have a White Card they will not be required to attend on this day.