

Queensland Health Immunisation Program

Queensland Paediatric RSV Prevention Program

Product Selection Guide

Australian Immunisation Handbook – RSV Chapter  Queensland Paediatric RSV Prevention Program webpage 		Abrysvo  RSV Vaccine	Nirsevimab (Beyfortus)  RSV-specific monoclonal antibody	Arexvy  Adjuvanted RSV Vaccine
Pregnancy 	Between 28 to 36 weeks gestation* *Can be given after 36 weeks if missed, refer to Australian Immunisation Handbook for more information	 Recommended and funded under the National Immunisation Program	 Not registered for use	 Not registered for use
Infants 	Birth to less than 24 months* *Refer to eligibility criteria prior to administration via the Queensland Paediatric RSV Prevention webpage	 Not registered for use	 Recommended and funded under the Queensland Paediatric RSV Prevention Program	 Not registered for use
Adults 50 years and above 	50 years and above with increased risk of RSV disease Refer to the Australian Immunisation Handbook for more information	 Not registered for use	 Not registered for use	 Registered but NOT funded
	All adults 60 years and above Refer to the Australian Immunisation Handbook for more information	 Registered but NOT funded	 Not registered for use	 Registered* but NOT funded