

Better connecting Queensland's Health Practitioners and public hospitals

Factsheet 1 - Preparing to register for the Health Provider Portal

Eligible Queensland Health Practitioners can register for secure online access to their patients' Queensland Health (QH) records. Residential Aged Care Facility Nurses (RACF) should complete the following steps prior to registering for the Health Provider Portal (HPP).

1. Update Queensland Health records

Ensure your AHPRA registration is up to date.

<https://www.ahpra.gov.au/>

2. Check your IT

To ensure the best possible browsing experience within the HPP, you will require:

- a personal computer
- internet access
- Mozilla Firefox version 38+(preferred), or Internet Explorer version 10+.

3. Confirm your email address

You will require an individual email address to register for the HPP.

e.g. john.smith@gmail.com.au

4. Prepare your personal ID records

To prove your digital identity, you will need to submit details through:

- one or more primary document/s with your full date of birth
- enough Australian or state-issued documents to reach 100 points of ID
- at least one document that shows your middle name (if entered)

Primary Documents

You must include at least one primary document as part of your 100 points of ID.

- Australian driver's licence (60 points)
- Australian passport (50 points)
- Australian birth certificate (50 points)

Secondary Documents (40 points)

- Certificate of Australian citizenship
- Change of name certificate
- Australian visa
- Marriage certificate
- Medicare card

Note: If you're unable to provide these documents please refer to the attached.

5. Prepare your professional ID record

- Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) registration number for Nurse

6. You're ready to register

If you've completed steps 1-5, you're ready to register for access to the HPP via hpp.health.qld.gov.au Please email connectingqld@health.qld.gov.au if you require any assistance.

Proving your QGov digital identity at a customer centre

We have listened to your feedback, and we are rolling out customer centres to help you to complete Queensland Government services online.

During this pilot phase, we are offering this service at selected Brisbane, Beaudesert and Gatton customer centres, with plans to progressively roll-out to more locations across Queensland in the near future.

At the customer centre, you will be asked to agree that:

- the identifying information you provide will be checked with the issuer or official record holder
- your name and date of birth will be stored securely.

Once your identity is verified at a counter, your login will be updated and you will be able to complete the service online.

Before visiting a customer centre, please bring your:

Mobile phone with the number you registered online

A confirmation code will be sent to this mobile number at the counter.
