

Unlock your potential

Advance HE Student Fellowship Program

Do you want...

- An internationally recognised professional credential?
- Recognition for your contributions to teaching and learning and/or student support at UQ?
- The ability to clearly articulate your skills to employers?
- A strong reference for future opportunities?

The Advance HE Student Fellowship Program will help you demonstrate your impact on teaching and learning while showcasing the skills valued by employers.

If you'd like to gain recognition for the contributions that you already make to learning at UQ, and learn how to turn your university experiences into career advantages, join our upcoming information session:

Friday, 29 May 2026
